Who are we?

Parker County Health Foundation is a charitable non-profit organization that uses its funds to enhance the health and well being of the citizens of Parker County.

Where do we get our money?

These funds are made possible by the generous contributions from local businesses and community members through the effort of the Foundation. The Foundation has two major annual fundraisers, the Pink Luncheon and the Cuttin' Capital Charity Ball. All proceeds remain in Parker County.

Where are we located?

The Foundation office is located at 200 Palo Pinto Street, Weatherford, Texas 76086. We can also be reached at 817-594-1990, or donnakirkpatrick@parkercountyhealthfoundation.org
